“If my application is selected for an award, I hereby give permission to the Lesbian Bisexual Gay Caucus of the American Academy of Physician Assistants to disclose information that will personally identify me within its communications such as newsletter and website, donor appeals, and in any and all forms of communication with AAPA staff and leadership. Personally identifying information may include my name, sexual orientation and gender identity as well as my essay, either in whole or in part.

As terms of acceptance of this award to become a leadership fellow, I agree to serve as a host at the caucus exhibit booth for a portion of each day that the exhibit hall is open; attend one of two Caucus Congress meetings and attend AOR and/or HOD for a portion of the days that they are in session along with the appropriate Caucus representative; attend both caucus business meetings; serve on the host committees and attend all caucus receptions (student, member appreciation, etc.); and actively participate in additional caucus activities as requested by the Caucus Officers during the conference and in the coming AAPA leadership term (July through June). I further agree to write a 330 word article for the fall issue of LGBT PA Caucus newsletter based on my activities at the Annual Conference.

By entering my name in the signature line below, I attest that the information provided within this application is true and correct.”
